Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 1600 on Monday 18 Jan 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
A few showers in the west and light winds Tuesday.

This Evening and Tonight:
Further showers, though as westerly winds ease overnight, showers will turn lighter, largely becoming confined to western areas by dawn. This brings a frost for many away from windward coasts. Minimum temperature -3 deg C (27 deg F).

Tuesday:
A bright day with some sunshine and a few showers mainly confined to the west, these will be relatively light. West to southwest winds will ease light in the afternoon. Maximum temperature 6 deg C (43 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
Light winds, sunshine and occasional light showers Wednesday. Thursday rather cloudy with strengthening northerly winds, bringing showers of rain, sleet, possibly wet snow. Wintry showers for Friday.
